

SEN Classroom Teacher Job description

Reporting to: Headteacher

Salary Range: Teachers' pay scale (Main or Upper)

Purpose of the job

To deliver high quality teaching and learning to pupils who are assigned to the postholder.

2. Main duties

All teachers work within the statutory conditions of employment set out in the current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document. The duties listed below are not, therefore, an exhaustive list of what is required.

- Be responsible for the quality of teaching and learning of all pupils who are assigned to the postholder.
- To implement and deliver an appropriately broad, balanced, relevant and differentiated curriculum, incorporating National Curriculum requirements, professional advice and EHCP recommendations
- Supervise the work of any support staff, including higher level teaching assistants and support teachers, who are assigned to work with the postholder's pupils.
- To liaise with classrooms teachers and SENCo to ensure best outcomes for the children in your care
- Provide leadership across the school in a designated subject or curriculum area, this to include:
 - i) monitoring quality and standards
 - ii) contributing to school planning and self-evaluation
 - iii) providing professional support to other teachers and support staff
 - iv) advising the headteacher on appropriate resources and materials
 - v) leading appropriate professional development.

3. Job context

The school welcomes teachers of high professional standard and shares the responsibility with each teacher for continual review and the development of expertise. For this particular role we would welcome specific experience of working with children with additional needs either in a mainstream setting or specialist provision.

All teachers make a valuable contribution to the school's development and, therefore, to the progress of all pupils. All teachers, except those who are newly qualified, will have a lead responsibility for a curriculum area across the whole school and will be supported in that role by their line manager.

For early career teachers, subject leadership will be taken by his/her line manager during the first year of employment at the school.

4. Review of duties

The specific duties attached to any individual teacher are subject to annual review and may, after discussion with the teacher, be changed.
